FISHING GEAR

- Rod and Reel are required.
- Each Angler is allowed to have a MAXIMUM of 2 Rods/Reels.
- A MAXIMUM of 3 hooks is allowed per fishing line. (Each Angler may set up their gear (i.e. with lure, bottom fishing or with floater) in any way).
- ANY ANGLER VIOLATING ANY OF THESE RULES WILL BE DISQUALIFIED.

OTHER EQUIPMENT

- Fishing stringer, fish basket or aerated fish container is allowed.
- The use of landing nets is allowed.

ILLEGAL METHODS

- Only rod and reel fishing is allowed. Other methods, whether accidental or on purpose, such as SNAGGING (Salvage), ELECTRO FISHING (Kuryente), BOW FISHING (Pana or Airgun), NETTING (Lambat) and other methods are STRICTLY NOT ALLOWED.
- Any fish caught by any of the above illegal methods must be released and will not be scored.
- Snagging involves hooking the fish in any part of its body aside from its mouth.
- Electro-Fishing involves using electricity to stun and catch the fish.
- Bow Fishing involves the use of an arrow-like object to catch the fish.
- Netting involves the use of nets (except landing nets) to catch the fish.

ANGLING SPOTS (Option 1)

- All Anglers are required to fish from the bank (Pilapil) of the designated venue. The use of a boat is not allowed.
- Angling spots are on a First Come, First Serve Basis.
- Upon registration, the Angler can choose his desired spot.
- The participant can transfer to another spot as long as it is not occupied by another Angler.
- ANY ANGLER VIOLATING OF THESE RULES WILL BE DISQUALIFIED.

ANGLING SPOT (Option 2)

- All Anglers are required to fish from the bank (Pilapil) of the designated venue. The use of a boat is not allowed.
- The pond's shoreline is subdivided and marked with alphanumerical tags.
- Each tag correspond to the angling spot.
- Each angling spot boundaries is clearly marked with small flags spiked to the ground.
- Each angling spot has been measure to give the optimum space for the angler to cast, fight a hooked fish and eliminate line tangles.
- Anglers are not allowed to:
 - Move the angling spot alphanumeric tag and spiked flag boundaries.
 - Encroach another Angler's spot, unless it's necessary when fighting a hooked fish.
 - In case of line tangles, the angler without a hooked fish will give way and will cut his line if necessary.
- ANY ANGLER VIOLATING ANY OF THESE RULES WILL BE DISQUALIFIED.

SIZE LIMITS

- Minimum Size Limit:
 - Any fish less than 6 inches in length must be released and will not be scored.
