IMPORTANT: ORGANIZERS WILL NOT ENTERTAIN LATE COMERS AND/OR CONTESTANTS WITH INCOMPLETE REQUIREMENTS.

CONTEST RULES

1. Competitors must specify the category they want to compete in. For the Adults Division, costumes consisting of 30% armor will fall under Cloth Category while those exceeding 30% will fall under Mecha/Armor. Only one person will be counted as a competitor.
2. Right after registration, competitors will be ushered to a holding area in order to prepare for the pre-judging phase. The organizers will post the list of official competitors at 5:00 PM. Contest proper starts at 7:00 PM. Only one assistant may accompany a competitor at the holding area.
3. A competitor will be given a one (1) minute presentation during the contest proper. Note that this is a general patronage event, costumes must not be too revealing. Fan service is allowed, but acts bordering on the obscene will result to disqualification. Only one assistant is allowed onstage (if needed).
4. The following materials are prohibited either as props or as costume accessories: Sharp or pointed metallic objects, flammable or hazardous substances, exploding devices and projectile emitting weapons.
5. The organizer will provide the background music. Other than those readily available at the venue, no other special requests will be accommodated.
6. Employees from the People's Park Events Division are not allowed to join.
7. Previous winners are allowed to compete again. However, the costumes used during the 2017 Competition will not be allowed this year.

CRITERIA FOR JUDGING

Craftsmanship:	35 points	Points may be deducted if competitors fail to observe certain provisions stated in the contest mechanics.
Accuracy:	35 points
Stage Performance:	20 points	The decision of the Board of Judges for both the pre-judging and contest proper will be final and cannot be appealed.
Audience Impact:	10 points
